

Comedy event to benefit Nepalese children

International comedy event Just For Laughs Bermuda, is planning to bring a big smile to the faces of deprived children in Nepal.

Organizers announced this week that part proceeds from the three-night event — to be staged at the Fairmont Southampton on January 11-13 — will be donated to the Bermuda-based Kathmandu Kids Club.

The club supports the work of The ISIS Foundation, whose projects in Nepal range from running ten children's homes for those who have escaped the war in the mountains and are now living in Kathmandu, to providing solar power and pit latrines for families living in villages 10,000 feet up in the Himalayas.

Just For Laughs will feature five leading international stand-ups comics plus Bermuda's own 'Fool', Nadeja Bailey, all on one stage.

The show at the Fairmont Southampton's Mid-Ocean Amphitheatre will be hosted by American comic Alonzo Bodden, winner of NBC's Last Comic Standing and will also feature Comedy Central star Rocky LaPorte, hot British comedian Lee Mack, Canadian funnyman Jeremy Hotz and comedy juggler Frank Olivier.

Tickets are $65 (which includes a free drink) and are available now from www.boxoffice.bm. All Wrapped Up in Washington Mall, or EasyPay on the fourth floor of the British American Building, 133 Front Street.
